J. WISE HAGINS, Editor.

Mrs. J. E. Lang is in a Lexington hospital for treatment.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jones, a fine boy, on last Friday.

G. W. Colley and family have moved into a house on the Heights.

F. B. Endicott was in Lexington the first of the week on business.

Mrs. G. H. Patrick, of Stanton, was visiting here the first of the week.

Santa Claus will open up his store Saturday at Jones'. Every body welcome.

Misses Sallie and Minnie Hurst, of Campton, visited their sister, Mrs. D. B. Redwine this week.

Born, to C. B. Rose and wife, on Tuesday, a girl. Mr. and Mrs. Rose are at G. W. Sewell's.

Headquarters for Xmas Candies and Fruits at CLARENCE HADDEN'S.

Miss Maggie Brandenburg, of Booneville, has accepted a position with the Singer Machine Co. at this place.

Santa Claus opens up his store Saturday, Dec. 15, next door to Fleenor's Jewelry store. Every body come.

Mrs. A. R. Allender and son, Herman, of Lexington, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jones, on the Heights.

Mrs. Clarence Hadden is at the bedside of her father in Montgomery county, and it is reported he is much better.

L. Y. Redwine, Walter Hoggz and two gentlemen from Lawrenceburg, enjoyed a successful hunting expedition one day this week.

A new sidewalk is being laid in front of the Christian church, and it is expected that the new gasoline light plant will be installed by next Sunday.

Mrs. E. Lovely, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Forbes, and other relatives in the county for the past month, returned to home in Chandler, Okla., Tuesday.

I will have the nicest line of Candies, Nuts, Fruits, etc., for Xmas that has ever been displayed in Jackson.

CLARENCE HADDEN.

Edward Boone, who has charge of Brown's camp on Williamsburg, passed through Jackson this week, on his return from a visit to his old home in Montgomery county.

The Court of Appeals has affirmed the judgment of the Perry circuit court in a case of E. C. Duff against H. C. Crawford, involving the office of County Judge of Perry, and declared Crawford entitled to the office.

J. Wise Hagins, editor of THE NEWS, left Monday for a trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles, California. Mr. Hagins will spend about ten days in California returning to Jackson on the first of January.

Miss Tishie Wright, who has been visiting relatives and friends near Lambrie, returned to her home in Carter county Thursday. She has gone home to spend a Happy Xmas with her home folks and others. She says she has enjoyed her stay in Breathitt very much.

P. H. Harris, S. E. Vaughan and A. B. Edwards have purchased the patent right for ten years to sell the Majestic Combination Iron in the following counties: Breathitt, Wolfe, Lee, Owsley, Perry, Leslie, Letcher, Pike, Knott and Floyd. They will begin operations about the first of the year.

J. B. McLin, Chairman of the Republican Committee of Breathitt, has announced himself as candidate for Railroad Commissioner of this District. Mr. McLin is too well known throughout this section to need an introduction. He is not only deserving of the office but competent to fill it. Here's predicting that Mr. McLin will be the next Railroad Commissioner from the Third District.

A clipping from the Daily Oklahoman, published at Guthrie, Oklahoma, says: "C. T. Byrd, one of the committee clerks appointed by President Murray, is a resident of Broken Arrow, and a prominent attorney practicing in northern Indian Territory. Mr. Byrd was chairman of the Democratic city committee at Tulsa for two years and did much to perfect the splendid organization of the Democracy of that city. Mr. Byrd is a native Kentuckian and is eminently fitted by experience in the active affairs of the new State to act as one of the secretaries of the different convention committees."

Don't fail to come and see what Santa Claus has brought you. He is at Jones' new store.

Wolfe County for Local Option.

A local option election was held in Wolfe county Saturday, resulting in a victory for the anti-saloon element. Whiskey was voted out by a majority of nearly 700.

All kinds of Dolls at Santa Claus' store next to Fleenor's jewelry store.

A Rare Opportunity.

It is a rare opportunity for the people of Jackson to give the opportunity of hearing a eminent lawyer as Hon. M. F. Fanning, who will give an address at the Baptist church on next Wednesday evening. Mr. Fanning is a speaker of national reputation, and he speaks up to his reputation. You can't afford to miss this lecture. No admission will be charged.

Dangerously Ill.

W. H. Combs, one of our oldest and best known citizens was taken ill several days ago, and it is hardly expected that he will recover. Mr. Combs has led a very active life and this is his first sickness in years. He is suffering from a complication of diseases resultant from old age. His daughters, Mrs. J. W. Clark, of Chandler, Okla.; Mrs. T. S. Hubert, of Barbourville; and Mrs. J. S. Redwine, of Lexington, and their husbands are at his bedside.

Everything fresh. Oysters, Celery, Cranberries and Candies, at CLARENCE HADDEN'S.

Go to Haddix's for anything you want to go in your fruit cakes.

Hargis and Callahan Cases.

When the criminal docket was called in the Fayette circuit court at Lexington, Monday, Commonwealth's Attorney Allen suggested that the cases against the Hargises and Ed Callahan, charged with the murder of James Cockrill, be continued indefinitely, as no decision had yet been made by the Court of Appeals on the appeal taken by the Commonwealth in these cases after the last trial of over a year. The Commonwealth's Attorney said there was no intention when the decision would be given by the higher court, and Judge Parker therefore continued the cases until the next term of court. By agreement, the case against William Britton, to be tried for the murder of James Cockrill, was continued until January.

Place your order for Fruits, Candies, etc., now. CLARENCE HADDEN.

Child Burned.

On Wednesday afternoon Pearl, the 7-year-old daughter of Lazarus Back, of the Quicksand neighborhood was badly burned. The little girl's clothing caught fire in some manner and her mother was first to reach her, but was unable to smother the flames until the child was seriously burned.

Lowney's Candies, put up in all styles, at Clarence Hadden's.

Special Judge.

Gov. Beckham has appointed Wm. Carnes, an attorney of Williamstown, as special judge of the Breathitt circuit court to try the cases of the Commonwealth vs. James and Elbert Hargis, Wm. Britton, John Smith and John Abner. Judge Carnes takes the place of T. G. Lewis, of Leslie, who was appointed by the Governor some months ago and resigned after hearing several motions for bail. Special Judge Carnes will be in Jackson in a few days and call the cases and set them down for trial.

Judge Beckner's Suspension.

The result of the disbarment proceedings against Judge Wm. M. Beckner, of Winchester, in which he was suspended from the practice of law for two years, was received with no little surprise and disappointment by his many friends in Jackson. The proceedings were founded upon the affidavit of Judge Beckner, in which he said that a certain judgment procured in the Clark circuit court was unfair and was influenced by political considerations.

While we do not presume to say that Judge Harris, who presided in the trial of Judge Beckner, has been influenced by any unfair motives or prejudice in rendering such judgment, yet we are slow to believe Judge Beckner guilty of any intentional improper conduct in this, either as a member of the bar or as a private citizen. Judge Beckner is well known as a lawyer of ability, and a man of high and unsullied character. He is one of the foremost lawyers of Kentucky. He has exercised a great influence upon the people of Central and Eastern Kentucky on account of his high character; his independent social and political views, and his ability as a lawyer and speaker. Judge Beckner stands to-day acquitted before their bar of public opinion, before the people who know his record, even though there is a temporary suspension against him. We are still proud to recognize him as a scholar, a lawyer and a Christian gentleman.

IT is difficult to select THE BEST
Everett
because Everetts are uniform in quality—a condition peculiar to EVERETT PIANOS.

This condition grows out of the fact that the Genius who created THE EVERETT is alive, and superintends the construction of each Everett piano.

That which he had the genius to create, he has the ability to construct of uniform quality.

Everetts are manufactured by The Everett Piano Co., Boston, Mass.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of execution No. 720, in favor of J. M. Robinson, Norton & Co., vs. P. B. McIntosh and Thomas Gross, which issued from the clerk's office of the Breathitt Circuit Court, now in my hands for collection, I or one of my deputies will on MONDAY, DEC. 24, 1906, between the hours of 12 o'clock m. and 2 o'clock p. m., at the Court House door, in the town of Jackson, Breathitt county, Ky., expose to public sale to the highest bidder, the following property (or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the amount of the plaintiff's debt, interest and costs, and Sheriff's commissions) to-wit:

One town lot lying and being in Breathitt county, Ky., on Highland avenue, Jackson, Ky., beginning at the corner of Eweland street and Highland avenue, thence with the line of said Highland avenue 56 feet to Harlan Rice's corner, thence with said Rice's line to C. J. Little's line, thence with said Little's line to Eweland street, thence with said line to the beginning.

Said lot is to be sold subject to a mortgage which Harlan Rice holds against it for $50.00.

Levied upon as the property of P. B. McIntosh, a defendant in said execution.

Principal, $387 50; interest, $110 62; Clerk's cost, $9 86; Sheriff's cost, $32 35; advertising, $18 00. Total, $558 32.

Terms: Sale will be made on a credit of three months, bond with approved security required, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from day of sale, and having the force of a replevin bond.

Witness my hand this 6th day of December, 1906.
